SHOT FROM ALLIED SHIP STRIKES U. S. SUBMARINE

Case of Mistaken Identity Came Near Being Serious in Results.

Sub Was of Latest Type but Was Only Slightly Damaged.

No One Was Hurt.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, July 25.—An American submarine of the latest design has been fired upon by an allied armed ship off the New England coast. The submarine was only slightly damaged and no one aboard injured.

Reports to the Navy Department today said the submarine which was cruising, submerged, suddenly appeared near the allied ship and the latter opened fire.

The scene of the attack was not far distant from the waters in which a German submarine recently appeared and when the American submersible came to the surface the captain of the allied ship assumed that it was an enemy vessel prepared to attack him.

Only one shot hit the submarine which quickly made its identity known when the allied ship began to fire. The Navy Department did not make known the identity of either the submarine or allied ship nor was it announced whether the latter was a cruiser or transport.

FRENCH FORCES, ACCORDING TO LONDON PALL MALL GAZETTE, GIVES CREDENCE TO RUMORS THAT FRENCH ARMIES HAVE PRESSED THEIR GREAT ADVANCE IN THE DIRECTION OF FISMES, BETWEEN RHEIMS AND SOISSONS.

FRENCH MAKE ADVANCE ON THE AISNE IN NEW SECTOR OF GREAT BATTLE FIELD EVERYWHERE THE ALLIES MAKE PROGRESS

GREAT GERMAN BASE, PIVOTAL TO WHOLE MARNE BATTLE FIELD SECTOR, UNDER FIRE OF ALLIED GUNS, IMPERILLING THE WHOLE ELABORATELY PLANNED GERMAN RETREAT FROM THE SOISSONS-RHEIMS POCKET.

London, July 25.—(Associated Press Cable)—The Pall Mall Gazette says that rumors are current that British troops have made a great advance in the direction of Fismes, about midway between Rheims and Soissons.

It is also reported that French forces have advanced on another part of the Aisne-Marne salient and that the armies of the German Crown Prince have been placed in a position out of which extraction seems to be impossible.

BIG DEVELOPMENTS IMPENDING

Big developments are impending on the Aisne-Marne-Rheims battle front, according to indications today. Although official advices are lacking, unofficial reports make it apparent that not only are the allies rapidly continuing the process of ousting the Germans from their Marne salient, but that a movement may be in process of execution by means of which it is hoped to trap a goodly section of the German Crown Prince's army.

The easterly drive of the English and westerly movements of the French are tending to converge to close the pocket. Speed seems to be the watchword of the allies all along the line as attested by orders of the American front to ignore machine gun nests and press on, leaving detachments to deal with the German gunners.

BIG GERMAN RETREAT SEEMS NOW ASSURED

AS THE DAYS GO BY AND HEAVY FIGHTING INCREASES ON THE BATTLE FIELDS OF THE MARNE THE ELABORATE PREPARATIONS OF THE GERMANS FOR A GENERAL AND ORDERLY RETREAT BECOME MORE APPARENT.

German rear guards have again hurled themselves against the pursuing allied forces on the north bank of the Marne.

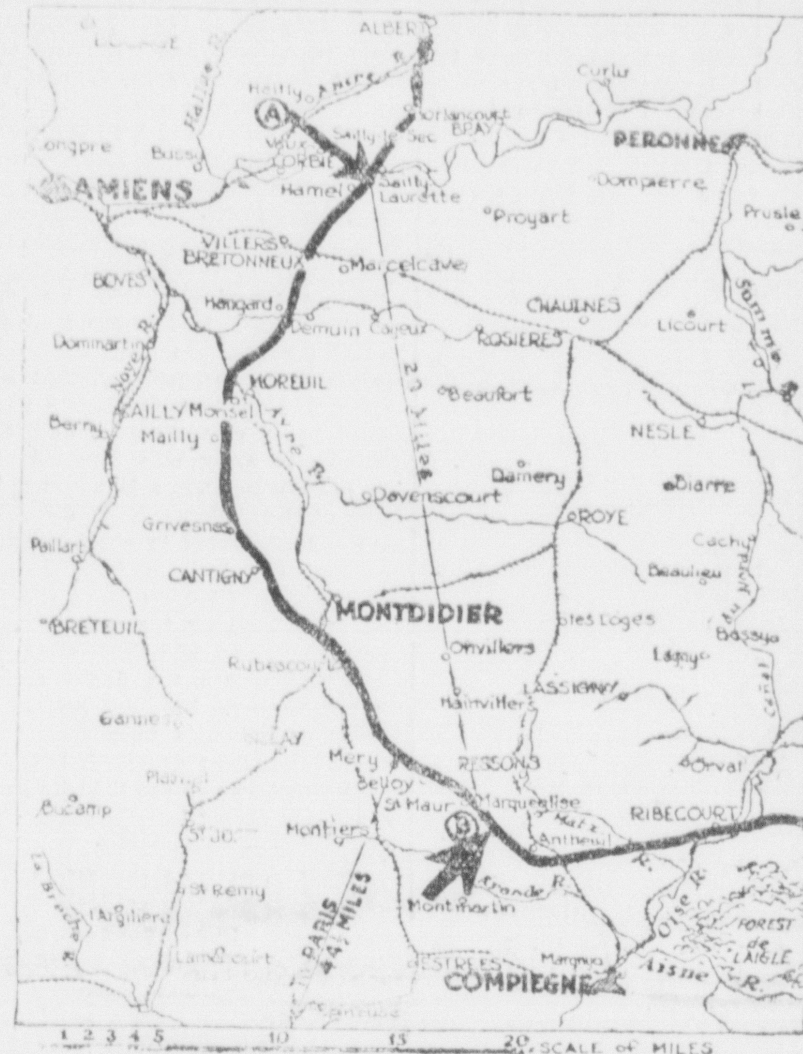

Before the momentum of their blow the allies were obliged to withdraw from the Little Wood to the north of the town of Preloup, but the Germans were immediately driven back by a renewed attack by the allies.

As the days of heavy fighting continue on the battle fields north of the Marne it becomes increasingly apparent that the German retirement is well under way. This withdrawal is apparently being conducted in an orderly, if not deliberate manner, being covered by such rear guard actions as that reported at Preloup and Chassins.

A study of the map of the region where the struggle is going on shows that as nearly as the location of contending forces can be determined the Germans have been forced back or have retired over much of this line, a distance of nearly three miles since Tuesday. North of the Ourcq the situation is obscure owing to lack of details given out through official reports or press dispatches.

It may be said, however, for the moment the line of Soissons southward to the Ourcq has reached a state of equilibrium and that the deadlock between the offensive of the allies and the defense of the Germans will probably continue until the former brings up sufficient fresh troops to break the line at some vital point.

BLOWS BY ALLIES AT AMIENS SALIENT

Two of the latest blows of the Allies in France have been directed at the flanks of the German salient which juts out toward Amiens and in both cases progress has been made. The latest local drive is that of the French northwest of Compiègne (B) By pressing forward a mile near Anthenil they have put themselves in a position to interfere seriously with the Germans nearest Compiègne. The other blow was struck by the Australians, aided by Americans, on both sides of the Somme River southward from Albert (A). This attack yielded high ground which will be useful as a "jumping off" place should the Allies decide to use the pincers movement in biting off the salient toward Amiens.

ADVANCE IS REPORTED IN STATEMENT

General Pershing Reports Enemy Lines Penetrated to Depth of Two Miles.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Paris, July 25.—On the north bank of the Marne the Germans last night launched a counter attack in the region of Bornans. The war office, in announcing this movement reports the enemy temporarily occupied the Little Petite Wood to the north of Preloup and the village of Chassins. The positions, however, were recaptured by the French soon afterward.

Violent artillery actions are reported from the regions of the Ourcq and to the west of Rheims.

ALLIES PUSH ON BEATING HUN BACK

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, July 25.—News from the battle front this afternoon was favorable to the allies who were reported as continuing to make good progress between the Ourcq and Marne in spite of the enemy's terrific efforts at resistance.

HEAVY GUN FIRE

(By Associated Press Cable)

Paris, July 25.—So heavy was the artillery fire on the Aisne battlefield that Paris again could hear the boom of the cannon.

OHIO'S QUOTA

FEELS CONFIDENT AMERICANS WILL WIN GREAT VICTORY

Major General Eben Swift Now In Italy Gives Reasons For His Belief

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Headquarters of the Italian Army, July 5.—"Victory for the Allies is a certainty in my opinion, and I am sure the American army will be the one to deal the knockout blow," said to the correspondent of The Associated Press Major General Eben Swift, last year in charge of Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Georgia, and now commanding the American military mission to Italy.

"I tell you we will win so soon as we get enough men over here and these men get hold of the fighting ideas peculiar to this war, as they are rapidly doing now through association with the French, English, and Italian troops."

"I do not believe in bragging. I prefer to admit all the claims the enemy makes for himself. But giving all the credit due the Germans for their gains I maintain we are going to smash them. I know the American man, what kind of a soldier he makes, and I insist that he is going to turn out a most formidable fighter, standing comparison with any

LONG RANGE GUN SHELL MARVELOUS

PARIS, JULY 15.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—That the bursting-charge of shells from the German long-range guns is mixed while the projectiles are in actual flight is the belief of French scientists, according to a technical journal published here.

When the shelling of Paris began it was noticed that the explosion of a shell produced a cloud of black smoke mixed with a little that was white and accompanied by a strong smell of ether. Recently the smoke has been entirely white and very light, the ether odor persisting.

No shell that failed to explode has been found, nor even an entire fuse, indicating how delicate and reliable the explosive is. This fact leads experts to suppose that the shell is charged with two liquid explosives, separated by the perforated partition which is known to exist in the center of the projectile.

When the shell is fired at a high angle the liquid in the upper end combines with that in the lower chamber, and churned by the violent rotation, produces at the moment of impact, three minutes later, a perfect mixture. This would explain, it is said, the ability of the charge to resist the enormous shock when fired and the remarkable uniformity of the explosions.

DISTRESSINGLY SAD AND FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT

Sherold Douglas, of Mt. Sterling, Pinned Against Post and Heart Crushed after Cranking a Ford Car.

A distressingly sad and fatal accident occurred Wednesday afternoon in the garage of Edward Douglas at Mt. Sterling, Sherold Douglas the eleven year old son of Mr. Douglas, was cranking a Ford automobile inside the garage building. His companion, another boy, was inside the machine instructed to keep his foot on the brake. Immediately after the car was cranked and the engine started the car lurched forward pushing the young Douglas boy violently against a heavy cement support post pinning him there and forcing the crank shaft against his breast directly over the heart. As soon as possible and that was almost instantly after they realized what had occurred, attendants rushed to the aid of the two boys. The engine was stopped and the car pushed back.

Released from the pressure of the are the little Douglas boy fell to the floor. Medical attention was immediately secured but in spite of all that could be done he expired within 20 minutes. There were no bruises or cuts apparent on the body but the pressure of the crank shaft in the region of the heart had inflicted a fatal hurt.

LOCAL LAD IN ENGLAND WRITES HOME FOLKS

The following letter was received July 23, 1918 by Mr. and Mrs. C. Leeth, Jeffersonville R. 1, Ohio, from their son, who is now over there.

Somewhere in England, June 28, 1918.
Dear Mother, Father and Sister:
I am writing you another letter although I wrote you one yesterday, you may get them both at the same time but what is the difference. I don't know if I will write again from here or not, I will if I can. I am still in good shape, but have got no mail from you folks yet. Suppose I will when I've finished my journey. I am sitting in the Y. M. C. A. writing this. A Scotchman is giving lecture here so I listen to him and write all at the same time. He certainly is a comical fellow. And say I saw Harry Lauder and heard him sing he is also a Scotchman he gave a lecture on the war. He was dressed in his native uniform, wearing a checkered skirt instead of trousers. I wish you could have heard him.
Well I will close for this time. But will write again soon.

CROP-WEATHER REPORT FOR WEEK

Washington, July 25.—Showers have occurred in portions of every state in the Corn and Wheat Region. They were moderate to heavy in North Dakota, west-central Montana, southeastern Nebraska, northeastern Kansas, south eastern Iowa, east-central Missouri, north-central Kentucky and most of Ohio, exceeding an inch at several stations. The temperature is above the seasonal normal except in the Northwest; the minima this morning ranging from 40 degrees to 50 degrees in Montana and western North Dakota.

Columbus, July 25.—The weather during the week was quite favorable for farm work and rapid progress was made with the harvesting and thrashing of grain, but it was entirely too dry for growing crops, except perhaps over the extreme southwest where moderate showers fell. Pastures and gardens are now deteriorating rapidly on account of continued dry weather. Corn is also being adversely affected by the droughty conditions, having reached the critical stage in most sections. The stalk is tasseling very low in many places and is pollinating very imperfectly. The threshing of wheat continues in northern sections. The quality of wheat is very fine and the yield is, as a rule, from good to excellent. There is some rust in northern counties. The tobacco crops seems to be in a satisfactory condition and is about two weeks ahead of the season in Miami County.

MONSTER SUMS FOR PENSIONS COLLEGES OF OHIO

London, July 19.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Great Britain will have to pay $250,000,000 a year in pensions if the war ends next March, according to an estimate made by A. Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Sir Alfred W. Watson, a government actuary estimates that by 1930, the annual pension charges will have fallen to $200,000,000 and that each succeeding decade will show a reduction of $50,000,000 but that these pensions will not have entirely disappeared by 1970.

Fifteen thousand cases of war disabled soldiers are reported each week to the Minister of Pensions. The total number of disabled British men on the list is now placed at 341,025 of which 28 per cent were cases of injury to the eyes or loss of sight resulting from wounds.

Small industrial and memorial villages for disabled soldiers and sailors are being established in different parts of Great Britain. At one of these near Moreton, Dorset, ten acres have been laid out as a market garden and houses are to be erected for the wounded men.

STRAWBERRY DAY IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Associated Press Cable)
London, July 25.—Saturday has been designated as "strawberry" day in Great Britain. Since the government commandeered the fresh fruit crop for jam purposes for the soldiers Saturday is the only day in the week when the public may buy strawberries.

The berries retail at eighteen cents a pound and are in great demand. Before the strawberries were commandeered by the government the price was about thirty-six cents a pound.

With the "strawberry" Saturday also came the "strawberry" queue. Many housekeepers bought five and six pounds, if the storekeepers would allow them that many, and endeavored to get more for jam making. Nearly all cream from the English dairies goes to the cheese factories, so strawberries and cream, even on "strawberry" Saturday is but a memory in all parts of the country.

BIG AID IN WAR

Ohio has furnished between 8000 and 9000 of 150,000 officers, teachers, graduates and students of American colleges that have enlisted in military service, according to a tabulation by President Charles F. Thwing of Western Reserve University, after sending a questionnaire to practically every college and university in the country. Ohio State, with 2294, of course, ranks far above any other in the state. Other Ohio educational institutions reported as follows:

Municipal University of Akron, 79; Mt. Union College, 189; Ashland College, 31; Ohio University, 250; Bluffton College, 51; St. Xavier College, 147; University of Cincinnati, 656; Western Reserve University, 1062; Capital University (Columbus), 68; Ohio Wesleyan University, 495; Kenyon College, 223; Denison University, 302; Hiram College, 142; Marietta College, 183; Franklin College, 28;

Muskingum College, 138; Oberlin College, 435; Miami University, 284; Rio Grande College, 37; St. John's University, 151; Toledo University, 43; Otterbein College, 65; Wilberforce University, (colored), 95; Wilmington College, 63; College of Wooster, 202. President Thwing gives three reasons for the college students' speedy entrance in the war: Youth, patriotism, freedom from certain family relations and business and professional duties, his sense of democracy, appreciation of freedom and liberty, and a moral passion for righteousness.

Many friends in the county as well as a large number of relatives will learn of her death with much regret. ## FAIR PRICE LIST PUBLICATION IS SUBJECT TONIGHT

Every county in Ohio is expected to arrange, as soon as possible, for the publication of local fair price lists, according to the Food Administration Bulletin.

The following Ohio cities are now publishing prices: Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati, Columbus, Akron, Youngstown, Steubenville, Dayton and Lima. Mrs. Francis Simonds, Price Expert on the staff of the Federal Food Administrator for Ohio, is in charge of this work.

All committees publishing fair price lists are instructed to send two copies of each price list published and two newspaper clippings to Mrs. Simonds.

Publication of fair price lists will be welcomed by patriotic dealers as well as the consumers. The purpose of it is to keep prices from soaring and to protect the patriotic merchant who is following the program of the Food Administration from the food slacker in business who attempts to take advantage of war time conditions the Bulletin states.

The local Food Commission will meet tonight. A representative from the State Commission will be present and the matter of Fair Price Publication for Washington and Fayette county will be taken up and a plan determined upon.

A "HAPPY PLAY" AT THE PALACE

This is a sparkling photoplay in which there is a strong human element that will endear to the hearts of every patron of the Palace this winsome, happy, natural girl.

The play is clean and wholesome with sentiment woven with deft hands and an eye to the lighter things of life which will prove doubly attractive in these troubled days when the world is thickly clouded with sorrow. It is a mighty appropriate picture for these troubled times and is sure to draw a big house at its last showing tonight at the Palace.

BUSINESS AFTER THE WAR IS AIM

London, July 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The American Chamber of Commerce in London is endeavoring to work out a practical plan for the co-operation of American export firms for post-war activities so as to prevent a scramble for new business after the war.

The London body has sent invitations to twenty of the leading foreign trade organizations in America and elsewhere to send suggestions. From these it is hoped it may be possible to work out a composite method of developing American export business.

Officers of the chamber say this will comprise preaching to exporters the necessity of carefully studying territory and of exporting goods for which there is the greatest need and for which there is the least competition.

Since the American labor delegation visited England and France a desire has been expressed for the visit of a delegation of business men. Should this not be done during the war the American Chamber of Commerce here proposes to have such an interchange of ideas after the war.

Is A General Offensive On

There are indications—strong indications—in the news reports from the western battle fronts, that the allies are developing a monster general offensive which will include every part of that long line stretching from the channel to Switzerland.

Those who have followed, on their maps, the campaigns of this year, beginning with the great German offensive of last March up to the present time have observed that in many instances the Germans have succeeded in driving a wedge into the allied lines. After pushing the point of the wedge so far the enemy seemed to be unable to either push the point farther through the lines or to widen it out at the base, in many instances, for a sufficient distance to bring the base or pivotal points to anything like an alignment with the point of the wedge.

The allies, until last week, seemed to be content to allow those several wedges to remain in the line, at least so far as making any counter attack was concerned. No marked effort was made after the fury of the German attack had been checked to push the point of the wedge back to a line with the base, until last week.

Then, while the German offensive was still on, the French and American forces counter attacked determinedly on the most southerly one of these several wedges. They attacked not only at the point of the wedge, driving the Germans out of Chateau Thierry, but they attacked with the same vigor on both sides of the wedge, one line leading from Chateau Thierry to Soissons and the other from Chateau Thierry to Rheims. The result has been to break off the point of this last wedge and to drive inward to a considerable distance the lines leading from point to base.

Not only that, but to the south of Rheims, as it lays on the maps, it is noted the allies have launched a heavy attack with the very manifest purpose of preventing the Germans from sending aid to the troops of the Crown Prince held in the wedge attacked. To the northwest of Soissons too, strong allied attacks have been launched to hold the German forces on those sectors. On Wednesday the latest news brings us information that the British, French and Italians, and further north in the Albert-Arras sectors, the British alone are launching heavy attacks.

If General Foch has concluded that the time to strike a blow along the entire line has arrived, then we may expect to see each one of the several wedges driven into the lines of the allies attacked in just the same way the Soissons, Chateau Thierry and Rheims wedge is being attacked now, with the purpose first of driving in the two sides or forcing the ends together in identically the same manner as one would close the top of a pocket and secure the contents, or second, compel a hasty retreat—a withdrawal from the pocket and a straightening out of the wedge not on a line with the point—a result to be attained by the widening of the base points but on a line with the base points back to the starting line.

If Foch has determined to limit his operations to the Soissons-Rheims sector then we may regard all other offensives as aids to that main movement.

It is too early yet to determine just what the intention of the French commander is in that regard, but even though his intention is only to destroy that wedge the point of which rested on Chateau Thierry, his success seems assured and he will have inflicted a severe defeat on the enemy even if the major portion of the army now in the pocket is withdrawn.

There is no reason, however, in the developments, warranting the conclusion that a general attack directed at all of the wedges is not already under way, or in contemplation, as an action of the immediate future.

Alexis Dies From Exposure

The report comes from Amsterdam that little Alexis Romanoff, the former heir apparent to the throne of Russia, is dead, the result of exposure following the "execution" of his father, former Czar Nicholas.

The unfortunate little lad, whose untimely end under such sad circumstances is heralded, was only a few years ago accounted one of the most fortunate lads in all the world.

It is a strange and cruel freak of fate that little Alexis upon whom in his babyhood and boyhood was showered every luxury, who was guarded against every danger and hardship, should die of neglect and exposure, a wanderer and an outcast while yet only a boy. An eventful career and a sad career.

The most merciful act of fate was to take back the life which had been so mistakenly given to the ill-starred Romanoff throne.

I AM THE FLAG

I am the Flag:
 As I bend my staff to the rising sun,
 Do you think of me as a gay design,
 From a silken web drawn out and spun,
 Or the Holiness these folds confine?

I am the Flag:
 Born not in the cell of a human brain,
 Wove not from a dream or the voice of prayer,
 Not a Star or Stripe did the State
 ordain,
 Nor an artist lay the colors fair.

I am the Flag:
 Not a term nor a text in a sordid
 creed,
 Not the flash of a blade for woe
 unsheathed,
 Not a lie untold that a world
 should bleed,
 But the will of God from Heaven
 breathed.

I am the Flag:
 My Stars are a torch to the lands enslaved,
 A light from the Temple of Freedom sent;
 Where my folds unfurl, is a Nation
 saved,
 And the yokes of men are sprung and rent.

I am the Flag:
 Of the great Creator my ALL is part;
 I am hoar with age and spirit of youth,
 For I am the throbbing of God's own heart;
 Yea, more than a sign—I AM THE TRUTH!
 In Times-Star—W. L. Anderson.

NEW PAY METHOD FOR U. S. ARMY

(Associated Press Correspondence)
 With the American Armies in France, July 10.—Every American soldier in France will receive a "bank book" enabling him to draw $7.50 a month from any disbursing officer. If the change in pay methods of the American Expeditionary Force now under consideration is put into effect. The purpose is to enable soldier to obtain promptly at least a part of his monthly pay regardless of where he may be, whether in a hospital or with some organization other than his own.

The "pay book" system is in use in the British army. The sum of $7.50 a month has been fixed as the minimum which a soldier should have for his personal wants every month and it would be given to him on his demand. Each three or four months there would be a general accounting, at which his total pay, his insurance and other allotments, his liberty loan subscriptions and other items would be cast up, together with his monthly drafts. The balance then due him would be put at his disposal.

The soldier would have the advantage of being able at all times and under all circumstances to draw something from any quartermaster in whose district he might find himself.

The proposed system would eliminate the present necessity of having on hand each soldier's service record whenever he draws any money. The service record system, designed for times of peace, does not take into account the frequent shifts which all military men must be prepared for. In many instances nowadays it works hardships on individual men who are transferred faster than their service records can follow them and who consequently cannot draw their money when it is due, merely because the formalities cannot be complied with. The proposed new system appeals as specially advantageous for camps where there are constantly large numbers of "casuals"—strays belonging to dozens and scores of organizations waiting to join their outfits yet unable to draw what money is due them until the service records have caught up with them.

THE COAL PRODUCTION IS ON THE INCREASE

By Associated Press Dispatch.
 Hazleton, Pa., July 25.—Increased production of anthracite coal is indicated in the Lohigh region by the discovery of new veins and by important improvements intended to increase the output.

Beds of virgin anthracite have been found under the Tomhickon reservoir, west of Hazleton and preparations are being made to clear the valley of water and strip the veins. The coal can easily be prepared for the market, mining engineers say.

In the Cranberry district a 22-inch vein of coal has been uncovered and this also will be stripped and the coal marketed.

Production of fuel will be increased by a revival of long abandoned workings. The Hollywood Colliery of Pa.

A shaft has been driven in to the lower veins that were deemed to be inaccessible in the eighties. Tunnels are now being run to get out the anthracite. A complete equipment will furnish power for several hundred miners.

ENTIRE TOWN WILL BE SOLD

(Associated Press Correspondence)
 London, July 3.—Any man whose ambition is to own a whole town will have an opportunity to satisfy his desire here next month. By direction of Lord Stalbridge, the owner, the entire town of Shottesbury will be put on the auction block, including private houses, banks, postoffices, stores, offices hotels and three saloons. The town is located in a picturesque part of Dorsetshire, perched on the top of a hill in the midst of rolling farm country. The nearest railway station is three miles distant, at Semley.

Sales of great estates are frequent in these days, when taxes are eating up profits, and many of the younger generation of the nobility are losing their lives on the battle fields. This is the first sale of an entire town which has been arranged.

The classified columns are always filled with opportunities to buy, sell.

ORDER YOUR FERTILIZERS NOW

The Office of Information, United States Department of Agriculture, has just issued the following announcement:

"Farmers are urged by the United States Department of Agriculture to place orders at once for fertilizer needed for fall wheat. It is very important, according to W. W. Mein, Assistant of the Secretary of Agriculture in charge of the licensing of fertilizer concerns under the Food Control Act, that dealers and manufacturers know farmers' needs as soon as possible, so that orders can be combined and car space used to the best advantage. Transportation difficulties require that freight cars be loaded to their rated capacity. Delay in ordering, it is said, may result in a repetition of last spring's experience when many farmers failed to receive their mixed fertilizer and acid phosphate until after planting time."

Orders can be filled in the "ACORN" or other leading brands of Williams & Clark's Fertilizers and delivered at your nearest station if you

FUNERAL SERVICES OF S. O. WILSON

Quite simple but tender and beautiful were the farewell services which honored all that was mortal of Mr. S. O. Wilson at the home of the daughter, Mrs. A. C. McCoy, Wednesday morning.

Mr. Wilson had been prominent in political circles and one of the best known men of the county for many years, and the large home was crowded with relatives and a host of friends who desired to pay a last tribute to a man whom they both liked and respected.

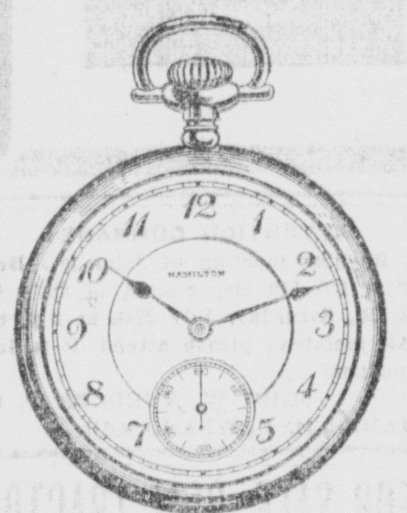

Rev. T. C. Locke, of Columbus, who was pastor of Grace M. E. Church when Mr. Wilson's wife died over six years ago, and conducted her funeral services came down to conduct, with the present pastor, Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington, the services. From his own acquaintance Rev. Locke spoke eloquently of the dead man, emphasizing his fine qualities and touching upon the personal side which had been revealed to the pastor.

The hymns "Lead Kindly Light" "Asleep in Jesus" were read and the services most effectively closed by Rev. Cherrington by the reading of John G. Whittier's prayer hymn, "When on My Day the Night is Falling."

The flowers were numerous and very beautiful, representing the family, relatives and many friends. The Knight of Pythias, the only lodge to which Mr. Wilson belonged, was represented in a handsome floral emblem.

The burial was made in the family lot in Washington cemetery. The pallbearers Hon. C. A. Reid, Dr. C. E. Page, Judge A. C. Patton, Messrs. Edwin Weaver, W. W. Wilson and George Gregg.

There were a number of relatives and friends in attendance from Jeffersonville, Bloomington, Good Hope and through the county and from farther away Mr. Noah Patton, father of Mr. Wilson; Mrs. Silas Sparks and Mrs. Allen Barber, sisters, Mr. Shackelford, Mrs. Addison Pavey, Mr. Fred Pavey, son, Claude, Mrs. George Patton, Mr. Chas. Anders and wife, Leesburg; Mr. Elby Patch, cousin of Chicago.

The immediate family here included H. C. Wilson, wife and daughter, Katharine, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Beatty, daughters, Misses Lillian and Mildred, Dr. Fred Wilson, daughter, Miss Margaret, of South Solon; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Hays, daughters, Misses Georgiabel and Helen, son Richard and James, of South Charleston.

Rev. Cherrington read the following eulogy:

IN MEMORIAM.

Samuel Oliver Wilson was born March 6, 1844, in Fayette county, Ohio. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. (nee Eliza Wain) Joel Wilson. His grandfather, his father and other members of his grandfather's family came into Fayette county from Virginia in 1831.

All of Mr. Wilson's early life was spent in Green township. There he was born and reared, there he received his schooling in the township schools and there he continued to reside until some time after his marriage.

Of his brothers and sisters the following survive him: Mrs. Nancy Lunsford, Ottumwa, Iowa, (she is his full sister) and four half sisters: Mrs. Fanny Barber, Leesburg, O.; Mrs. Dora Sparks, Leesburg, O.; Mrs. Amanda Manifold, of Leesburg, O.; Mrs. Martha Elkins, Omaha, Nebraska; together with one half-brother, Oscar M. Patton, of Clear Lake, Minnesota.

On May 13th, 1865, when he was 21 years of age, he was united in marriage with Sarah Catharine Pavey, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. S. Ross at Staunton, Ohio.

After residing in Green township for some time they moved into Wayne township where they resided for many years.

In 1856, nearly 32 years ago, they became residents of this (Union) township.

A little over six and one-half years ago, (in November, 1911) Mrs. Wilson, the devoted wife came to the end of her earthly pilgrimage. For several years she had been in frail health and the angel's call came to her after a long life of loving and faithful devotion to husband and children. The mother was the first of the family to go.

To this union were born five children: Mrs. Abner C. McCoy (in whose home this funeral service is being held); Mrs. E. D. Beatty, Columbus, O.; Mrs. Ellis Hays, So. Charleston, O.; Mrs. H. C. Wilson, Cleveland; Dr. Fred Wilson, South Solon, O. All of these children are living and are here today.

Eight grandchildren were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. All the eight are living and here today.

In early life Mr. Wilson united with the church. Both he and his wife were for years identified with the Olive Chapel Methodist Episcopal church where they were active. At one time he was Sunday school superintendent there. Later when they moved into Wayne township he and his wife became members of the Good Hope Methodist Episcopal church where his membership has since remained.

Mr. Wilson was well and favorably known throughout the county. He became superintendent of the Fayette County Infirmary. He was elected to serve two terms as sheriff of the county.

He was a cheery man—a friendly man—a man of youthful spirit. His social qualities were extraordinary and made him very many friends.

He was a lover of nature and could see the real beauty in growing crops, trees, etc. He noted and admired the trees and rejoiced in many ways in God's beautiful "out-of-doors."

He was interested in wise public improvements—in the development of good roads—in the advancement of education and religion through his ardent support of school and church.

He was counted upon to take the right side in all matters of public welfare.

One who knew him well said yesterday: "Those who know him best will justify a very commendable eulogy."

In these days the anti-saloon movement is more popular than it was many years ago. There was a time when it took courage to oppose the saloon. Mr. Wilson was a thorough anti-saloon man and had a worthy part in the overthrow of the liquor traffic in this county and thereby helped to make this county a better place not only for the adult population but particularly for the rising generation then and now. It is certainly something worth while to have had a part in paving the way for a better day in state and nation.

Mr. Wilson enjoyed his life in this world. He has spent the years since his wife's death largely with his children—particularly his daughters.

For the last two years he has been failing in physical strength. After his recent stay here with his daughter, Mrs. McCoy, he went on (in his rounds staying with the children) to the home of his daughters in Columbus, where the end came last Sunday, July 21st, 1918.

He has been tenderly ministered unto by loved ones. Among the very last words spoken by the wife and mother to the children as she left for the hospital at Columbus where her earthly life ended were these: "Well, good-bye. Do take care of Pa."

The son from Cleveland said yesterday: "The girls (his daughters) with whom he has made his home most of the time with occasional visits to the sons' homes) have certainly kept well that last loving request of mother's."

In his last weeks and months he has preserved his accustomed sweet spirited, patient disposition. He was always even tempered and uniformly kind.

Toward the last of his life his loved ones often noted the moving of his lips as if in prayer. Once, a few days before his death, his half-sister, Mrs. Sparks, bent over with listening ear near his lips and caught these words: "Dear Heavenly Father." He evidently knew the end was approaching and was in communion with his Heavenly Father as the time of his departure came. Though she heard not the rest of that prayer we can easily surmise that perhaps that prayer was like John G. Whittier's hymn prayers. (See Methodist Episcopal Hymnal No. 589)

"When on my day of life the night is falling."

And, in the wind from unsummed spaces blows,
I hear the voice out of darkness calling—
My feet to paths unknown,
Thou who hast made my home of life so pleasant
Leave not its tenant when its walls decay;
O Love Divine, O Helper ever present,
Be thou my strength and stay,
I have but Thee, my Father! Let thy spirit
Be with me then to comfort and uphold.
No gate of pearl, no branch of palm,
I merit,
No street of shining gold,
Suffice it of—my good and til unreckoned
And both forgiven through thy abounding grace,
I find myself by hands familiar beckoned
Unto my fitting place.
There, from the music round me stealing,
I fain would learn the new and holy song,
And find at last beneath thy trees of healing
The life for which I long."

GERMAN FIGURES BECOME AVAILABLE

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Amsterdam, July 19.—What the Berlin Vorwaerts terms "criminal sapping of the nation's strength" is revealed by the returns of the "labor inspectorate for Prussia" for 1917.

These statistics have not appeared during wartime and socialists have long and vainly urged their readmission. The Prussian Board of Trade finally yielded and last year's figures have just been made public. Issued without text they are eloquent in themselves as they show increase use of the labor of women and children which, Vorwaerts says, "will exact a fearful revenge on the future race."

Compared with pre-war statistics, male employees over sixteen decreased from 2,662,152 to 1,966,202, but women employees increased from 657,734 to 1,234,593. Employees fourteen to sixteen years old increased from 239,148 to 277,904 and children under fourteen, 3,584 to 6,912.

In engineering workshops alone the number of women increased from 51,513 to 327,515.

Cases of infractions of the workmen's protection act have grown alarmingly. By the emergency law of 1914, employers were granted exemptions which have been scandalously abused. Cases of exceeding the ten hours working day rule for women rose from 2,869 to 6,166; suppressions of the legal luncheon interval from 3,783 to 9,292; non-observance of the prohibition of night work 727 to 13,398; and non-observance of the prohibition of juvenile labor 162 to 1,209.

The number of official inspections of factories having notably decreased. It is safe to say, adds Vorwaerts, "that law breaking in this respect has assumed gigantic proportions," and the paper vehemently complains of the excessive indulgence shown to employers by the authorities who, for instance, granted permission for overwork by women to the extent of 23,600,000 hours compared with 15,000,000 in 1916, and for nightwork by women to the total of 44,000,000 hours, compared with 25,000,000.

The two-shift system is still prevalent while three-shifts are comparatively rare.

Vorwaerts demands instant measures to counteract these abuses and the abolition of the exemption law.

Thomas Loudner accompanied Frank Beck, when he went to Cincinnati to enlist in the Navy. Both boys are now in training at Great Lakes Training School, Great Lakes, Ill.

THEATER OF FRENCH ATTACK

The arrows show the direction of the two French attacks on the west front reported recently. In Picardy, on the three-mile front between Castel arrow 1, and Mally Rainval arrow 2, the French advanced one and one-fourth miles, capturing Castel and other objectives. In Champagne, a French attack in the direction of arrow 3 captured the village of Longpont. The village of Corey, immediately south of Longpont, was captured by the French the preceding day.

FILE PROTEST ON BEHALF OF DOGS

(Associated Press Correspondence)
London, June 28.—Protest meetings against what was described as semi-starvation of the dogs of the country by the government were decided upon recently at the annual meeting of the National Canine Defence League in London. This action came after an announcement that the biscuit available for dogs amounted to half an ounce a day for each dog.

The food ration for dogs in Great Britain has been reduced materially recently.

Mrs. Carlo Clark said that the league members must show the government that the men and women of England meant to preserve their dogs and that with them, "dogs mean votes."

Roy Roy, clerk, Peabody Ave., Washington C. H., says: "Last spring, I had an attack of kidney trouble. My back became weak and made it quite impossible for me to do any lifting. Frequently sharp pains went through the small of my back. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills and I got good results right away. In fact, it wasn't long before I was rid of the trouble."

MEANS WAR SAY RUSS BOLSHEVIKI

Regard Landing of Allies on Murmur Coast as Cause for Break.

(Associated Press Cable)
Amsterdam, July 25.—The Russian Bolshevik government, says a dispatch from Moscow, considers action taken by the Entente Powers on landing troops on the Murman coast as tantamount to a declaration of war. The Bolshevik government, the dispatch adds, has announced it will take counter measures accordingly.

Allies Continue to Press For

(By Associated Press Cable)
With the French Army in France, July 25.—The Germans desperately counter attacked all along the semi-circle of the Marne salient today. They met the most powerful resistance from the French, the Americans and the British. There were a few fluctuations in the line but the allies held well responding in the most vigorous manner to every attempt of the enemy to advance.

Fresh troops were thrown in by the allies to meet the enemy blow. On both wings of the salient the artillery

BAKER'S OPINION

(By Associated Press Dispatch)
Washington, July 25.—The latest official dispatch to the War Department from France shows continued advances by French, British, American and Italian forces, Secretary Baker said today.

These advances, while not extensive in area, are important and "show that the battle continues favorable."

AMERICAN ADVANCES CONTINUE

(By Associated Press Cable)

With the Americans on the Marne, July 25.—Franco-American troops this morning advanced their lines north of the Marne more steadily. The Germans continued their retreating movement to the northward.

The French and Americans also made gains on other parts of the 55-mile battlefield. The Germans viciously resisted in a majority of places.

BIGGEST EVER SUBMARINE IS LAUNCHED TODAY

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Quincy, Mass., July 25.—A submarine said by its builders to be the largest ever launched in this country and embodying all the latest designs in submarines, went down the ways at the Fore Rivers plant of the Bethlehem Steel Building Corporation here this afternoon.

Several thousand workers joined in a mighty cheer as the new undersea boat struck the water. She was christened AA-1.

LITTLE BORDER TOWN IS PATRIOTIC PLACE

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

El Paso, Texas, July 25.—San Jose, a little valley settlement on the Mexican border is as patriotic as is Dupont Circle, Washington, D. C. This was demonstrated during the war savings stamp drive. It was hay- and peach picking time but on the last day of the drive field hands and their overseers laid down their sythes and tramped a mile to the school house to listen an hour to the speeches in Spanish and English explaining the war savings stamp system. Only five native Americans attended this meeting. Of the 109 others all spoke Spanish. Many had been with Villa or Huerta in Mexico.

When pledges were called for each of the 114 present signed cards many Mexicans making their marks. San Jose's quota was $2,500. The pledges totaled $3,500. Many native farmers paid cash or pledged their hay or fruit crops in payment for stamps. San Jose over the top and oversubscribed her quota by $1,000.

NEW LINE POST ON THE MARKET BURNETT PATENT

Local Inventor Is Again to the Front with a Line Fence Post
Which He Claims Is the Superior of All Others.

Mr. Charley Burnett of this city who in the few years last past has placed on the market so many new and valuable inventions, is now preparing to place on the market a new line post. The new post, Mr. Burnett claims, is vastly superior to concrete or metal post in that it permits the driving of nails, staples, or fastening of wire at any point. The durability, he claims is equal to or superior to the concrete or metal posts, and cost will not be any more and probably less.

Mr. Burnett claims that the new post which he is now preparing to market will have every advantage of the wooden line post and not be subject to decay.

The old wooden posts were discarded in favor of the metal and concrete line posts because of their short life, rotting off at the ground line and it is this tendency to rot that Mr. Burnett claims to have entirely eliminated in the new post. He points out that the processes of decay operated on the old wooden posts right at the ground line—that all of the decay which destroyed the old wooden line posts occurred immediately above and immediately below the ground line, that deep in the ground and farther up above the ground all the old wooden posts lasted for years. It was only where the dry rot, the above ground process of decay and natural rot, the underground processes, of decay met, that the post was destroyed. This "dead line" Mr. Burnett claims to have eradicated entirely in his new post.

Briefly described the new post is of any length desired, constructed of two separate pieces. At the ground line for a distance of two feet in each piece a shallow pocket is cut and this pocket filled with a chemical compound which because of a steel covering inserted between the two pockets forces the composition to saturate both pieces of wood, rendering the wood invulnerable to the rotting processes which attack at the ground line.

It is claimed by Mr. Burnett that the new post, constructed as it is of two pieces of wood and braced with the steel plate, the two pieces being securely nailed together, has more strength than the single piece wooden post. It is the intention to have the saturated portion of the post extend for one foot below the ground and one foot above the ground thus exceeding the extreme distances which any rotting process has ever been known to attack the line post.

As a matter of course Mr. Burnett is enthusiastic over the new post and many men, who have had disastrous experiences with the old time wooden line one, join with him in claiming a great future for the new post.

GET PLACE IN BRITISH FOOD MINISTRY

MAJOR WALDORF ASTOR

Major the Hon. Waldorf Astor, son of Viscount Astor, of Hever Castle (William Waldorf Astor), will succeed John Robert Clynes as Parliamentary Secretary to the Food Ministry, according to reports from London. Major Astor was born in the United States in 1879 and became a British citizen at about the same time as his father, in 1899.

HIGH REGARD FOR THE YANK SOLDIERS

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Liverpool, July 2.—The high regard in which the American soldier is held by experienced British fighters is attested by a correspondent of the Liverpool Post. He writes:

"The official testimony as to the quality of the American troops is confirmed by unofficial evidence that the new fighting force is appreciated highly by the veteran warriors of three or four years of war. Our own men at first were inclined to be suspicious of the Americans because they thought they would 'swank' about coming in to finish the war, but when they found that the Americans did not 'swank' and were eager only to learn the art of warfare, all suspicion vanished, and a comradeship in arms is springing up."

"The Americans in this country are creating an excellent impression, and when we get over our shyness, and when the American wounded are entrusted to our care, relationships will become still more intimate. An Australian officer told me that he and his friends had come to regard leave to England as equivalent as nearly as possible to a visit home, and it is hoped that the Americans will soon come to have the same feeling."

SUGAR DESTINED FOR GERMANY IS NOW YANK CANDY

Paris, July 20.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—A thousand tons of sugar said to have been destined for Germans is now being turned into candy for American soldiers in France. Swiss agents had purchased the sugar in the United States. When the shipment arrived in a French port the government learned that it would remain in Switzerland just long enough for reshipment into Germany. The sugar was stored in a French warehouse where it remained for three years and recently it was sold at auction.

The Young Men's Christian Association purchased the sugar and now the association factories in France are busy manufacturing dainties for the soldiers.

The system of the "sugar card" in France entitles one to one pound of sugar per month, five hundred grammes. About the 25th of the month there are many who have their coffee "without."

GOVERNMENT NEEDS DOCTORS

Status of Medical Men Seems Now Definitely Fixed and the Work of Mobilizing Supply of Doctors Has Been Begun in Earnest

There is considerable room for the supposition that, if the war last long enough, the U. S. Government may take over all the physicians and surgeons of the country to use them as is deemed most necessary, just as it has taken over railroads, telephones and other necessities.

Concerning the Government's call to the doctors and its great need for response the Herald has gathered interesting facts right from Headquarters, through Dr. G. S. Hodson, who came in personal association with men high in authority while attending the American Institute of Doctors at its annual convention in Detroit, Mich.

In attendance at this Institute when General Noble, first aide to General Gorgas, Surgeon General of the U. S. Army, and Major Martin, Secretary of the Medical Department, Council National Defense. In forceful addresses these officers brought to this body of doctors realization of the necessity that all doctors under fifty-five years of age join the Medical Reserve Corps and that all who are over that age or are not eligible enlist in the Medical Volunteer Service Corps. The government wants to have the name of every doctor and surgeon enrolled on the books in Washington, D. C., under one of these two corps, so that necessary medical aid may be quickly available.

In the Medical Reserve Corps will be listed the younger physicians, ready for active duties over seas and in the Medical Volunteer Service Corps those older ones, thoroughly capable, but not equal to the strenuous work for which the younger men are better fitted. These doctors past fifty-five are just as able to take care of the hospitals in cantonments and release younger men to go across the water.

The government is not getting the needed number of doctors. They are needed in cantonments in this country as well as overseas, for thousands of men in the training camps require operations, or special treatment to put them in physical condition for army service.

But first of all there must be doctors at the front, skilled doctors to take care of the wounded and the sick as they are brought in by the thousands to the hospitals of Europe.

Both of the officers from Uncle Sam's headquarters addressing the physicians, gathered from all over the country in Detroit, fired a volley of stirring words. Said General Noble: "All you men under 55 who have not and do not purpose to put in an application to the U. S. Medical Reserve Corps are against us and are therefore slackers."

Many of the doctors at the institute had not realized the necessity for their enlisting and a large number desired to be examined for enlistment while there.

General Noble, through a special dispensation, appointed a Board of Examiners for the emergency and close to a hundred doctors were examined before adjournment. Dr. G. S. Hodson was one of the four examiners put on the Board and had a number of conversations with General Noble and Major Martin, which gave insight into the emergency to which each doctor is asked to rise.

The local Board has received orders from Army Officials to prepare a list of all physicians of draft age in the county. So far only 3 practicing physicians of this city, Dr. L. P.

Howell, Dr. Herman Hodson and Dr. A. D. Woodmansee have volunteered and gone overseas and two practicing physicians of the county, Dr. French, of Jeffersonville, and Dr. McDonald, of Bloomingsburg—making a total of five from the entire county. Lt. Fred Hall, while not engaging in practice here, is accredited to Fayette. Dr. G. S. Hodson has had his application in for some time and there may be and probably are other physicians who have also applied or will shortly, now that the status of physicians is being definitely announced by the government.

Heretofore there has existed a great amount of uncertainty as to just what was the status and what the desired requirements for both home and overseas service, and there may yet be details to be worked out. It is understood that all of the county's physicians over the age of 55 or those disqualified have enrolled in the Medical Volunteer Service.

A committee of five doctors in the State of Ohio makes the final decision as to whom of the physicians applying shall be taken out of the community—taking into consideration those which can be best spared in the community and those who promise to be most useful to the government.

SEA FOOD MARKETS

by Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, July 2. — New markets for seafood are being developed by the Bureau of Fisheries of the Department of Commerce, as a meat conservation measure.

While meat from the Pacific coast—20,000 pounds of it—recently has been put on the Boston market. The shipment was disposed of in ten days at a retail price of 15 cents a pound and was received with such satisfaction by householders who like to live both well and economically that preparations are being made to assure a greater supply. Some of the meat was sold as far north as Portland, Me.

On the Texas coast, a representative of the Bureau is seeking to introduce porpoise meat, which has been pronounced excellent by those who have tried it. The main difficulty has been to make arrangements at the fishing centers for systematic shipment.

Fishes from the Gulf are being sold in many cities throughout the middle west, as the result of shipments arranged by the Bureau. Carload lots are being ordered by dealers in Indianapolis, Louisville and Nashville.

Efforts are being made by the Bureau to increase the pack of salt whitening, for which there was a large demand last winter. New England fishermen are being instructed in salting methods.

Dr. Russell J. Coles, an assistant at the Bureau, is endeavoring to establish a fishery for sharks, rays and porpoises at Cape Lookout, N. C. Experiments have shown that smoked porpoise is nutritious food.
